Jesus enters Jerusalem

An Activity for Young People!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark
(Mark 11:1-2,4,7-10)

When they drew near to Jerusalem,
to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives,
Jesus sent two of his disciples, and said to them,
'Go into the village opposite you, and immediately as you enter it,
you will find a colt tied, untie it and bring it.
And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door out in the open street, and they untied it.
And they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments on it, and he sat upon it.
And many spread their garments on the road, and others spread leafy branches which they had cut from the fields. And those who went before and those who followed cried out,
'Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming!
Hosanna in the highest!
